MASKEMANE

TOT-MIG-XZF

This is a start like a rocket of our third and final arc of the adventures of our Masqueraider avenger!

That is, the fiery battle against Dark Vlad is not far away. After a return to childhood in the previous comic, he's back in great shape, ready to knock back the incandescent lop! But be careful not abuse good things: the wearing of Masqueraider's masks have a long term influence on your behavior. Our hero will pay the price with the most dangerous mask: the Psychopath mask! This mask can turn even the most innocent Gobball into the bloodiest Boowolf! It's to be used sparingly, especially if you value your mind...

On the other hand, the consumption of WAKFU comics is without restraint! And don't miss the release of the first book with the adventures of Maskemane which includes the first four issues of the comic. To be published in the collection WAKFU Heroes, September 20!

THE MAN WITH 1000 FACES

This is it! Now, I can't go back. I'll face Dark Vlad in a final battle and I intend to settle the score with this flame head to two kamas! No more fleeing! There is only one solution for desperate situations, and this solution, its on my face. I think of my father and brother... I want them to be proud of me! However, I feel strange... as if a new feeling is interfering with me...

Kill...

Something is brewing in the depths of my being... Like something is taking possession of my body.

Kill... Kill...

Maybe I shouldn't put the mask on after this. Why am I fighting? I don't even know... All I know is that I have to comply this irrepressible desire growing inside me, a desire of kill and destroy this irrepressible desire to kill and destroy growing in me. Maybe I'm going crazy...

Or maybe I've always been like that...

Kill... Kill... KILL!

The adventures of Maskemane to be continued on December 12 2012!
